

Victoria Beckham loves Morpheus8!

I know I'm a bit biased, but I love Morpheus8 RF Microneedling!!! But it looks like I'm not the only one because Posh Spice aka Victoria Beckham, also does. She's renowned for being a strict disciplinarian when it comes to her diet and appearance so I was not surprised to hear her talking about what she uses for her skincare.

Yes Morpheus8 is her go to procedure and she has it every 6 months to ensure her skin is smooth and youthful. She looks great for her 49 years and much of that is part of her dedication to her skincare routine. But sometimes we need a bit of help and I'm glad Victoria is willing to share her secrets! I have to say I agree wholeheartedly with her, so without further ado I'm going to run through some of the benefits of the procedure to the stars.

It treats excessive sagging or loose face and neck skin including jowls and double chin. It tightens skin and stimulates the production of new collagen. On top of this it's not just for the face and neck and can treat any other areas of the body too. So those are the dazzling effects but what is it?

It's a really amped up method of microneedling that uses radio frequency to drive the energy deep into the skin to stimulate the collagen and elastin. The result is the restructuring of the deep dermal layers to reduce sagging skin, leading to a smoother skin appearance and taut contours.

So if the thought of going under the knife scares you, then this is a great alternative for a lot less cost and a much faster relatively painless recovery!

Come in and see us at Invigorate Advanced Aesthetics in Centennial, Colorado for Morpheus8 RF Microneedling.
